(Consolidated with Case No. 07-2664 JSW)

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO COMPEL
RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES
AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

1 On November 13, 2007, Alpha & Omega Semiconductor, Inc. and Alpha & Omega
2 Semiconductor, Ltd. (collectively "AOS") filed a Motion to Compel Responses to Interrogatories
3 and Production of Documents (Docket #71, hereafter "AOS's Motion to Compel"). Defendant
4 Fairchild Semiconductor Corp. ("Fairchild") also filed a Motion to Compel Responses to 5 Interrogatories and Production of Documents (Docket #57, hereafter "Fairchild's Motion to 6 Compel"). Subsequent to the filing of these motions, and at the Court's suggestion, the parties
7 have been meeting and conferring regarding an agreement to proceed with discovery on the basis
8 of "representative parts." Such an agreement would, if achieved, obviate the pending motions.
9 While the parties have not yet reached a representative parts agreement, the parties believe good
10 faith negotiations towards such an agreement have progressed to the point that the pending
11 motions to compel can be withdrawn.

12 Accordingly, AOS hereby withdraws its motion to compel, Docket #71, on the 13 understanding that Fairchild is also withdrawing its motion to compel, Docket #57. AOS reserves
14 its right to seek relief from the Court on discovery issues, including issues addressed in AOS's
15 motion to compel, if the parties are unable to consummate the contemplated representative parts
16 agreement. As Fairchild is simultaneously withdrawing its motion, AOS respectfully requests
17 that the Court cancel the continued hearing on these motions currently scheduled for January 22, 18 2008.

Subject Missing AOS Process Documents

Andrew,

As we discussed earlier today, we don't seem to have received process flows and recipes for a number of AOS processes that are referenced in some of the AOS documents. I've attached a spreadsheet that identifies some of those processes. In addition, I've attached PDFs that identify additional processes for which no flows/recipes were produced. Please review this and let us know if there are additional documents that have not yet been produced for these processes.

Also, please identify the process used to make each of the 342 accused AOS parts identified by part number in Fairchild's PICs. This will help us determine how to proceed on the representative parts issue.

Subject RE: AOS v. Fairchild - today's meet and confer.

Eric,

During today's call, we heard from you that Fairchild will work diligently and in good faith to articulate meaningful groupings for AOS's products if and when it obtains the GDS files for each of the products on AOS's representative parts list. In light of that promise, and in the interest of reducing future discovery burdens, AOS will begin producing its GDS files next week. Please confirm that there are no misunderstandings here as to what Fairchild has promised and intends to do upon receiving AOS's GDS files. Thanks.

-De-designation from AEO to Confidential of Fairchild's Amended Representative Parts List dated 2/1/2008 (FAIR0019566A) and List of Part Number Corresponding to Technologies Identified in 2/1/2008 Representative Parts List (starting at FAIR0019567)

-Explanation of how you grouped Fairchild's products into the listed families and identification of documents/persons relied on to create this list

-Production of technical documents for additional Fairchild products in each listed family

Thanks,

We are already working toward the goal of identifying product groupings for AOS's products - we will of course continue to work in good faith toward that goal upon receiving AOS's remaining GDS files.
